Aroha String Trio derives from the Aroha Quartet, founded in 2004 and known for "accomplished brilliance, soulfulness and sublime intensity, in perfect balance and tonal unity". For this concert, entitled Serenade, the musicians present Serenades for String Trio by Dohnányi and Beethoven, plus a sparkling trio movement by Schubert, a gorgeous short work by New Zealand composer Salina Fisher and the witty String Trio (1933) by Jean Françaix.

Les Voisins (Neighbours) is a conjunction of neighbours who, despite following very different careers in music, have remained close friends - Justine nurturing NZ music with NZTrio and James pursuing baroque performance practice; joined by theorist Simon Martyn-Ellis. Their concert is a journey through French music - from Baroque era through the colours of Ravel's impressionism to the irresistible swing of Django Reinhardt and jazz violin of Stephane Grappelli.

Menzies/Endres Duo Renowned international soloists who are also teachers at University of Canterbury, Mark Menzies and Michael Endres present cornerstone works of the violin, or viola, and piano repertoire. They performed together first playing Beethoven's Kreutzer Sonata and have continued to perform chamber music together, including a recital including Schnittke's Quasi una sonata (1967) that he later arranged for violin and chamber orchestra.

Akarana Piano Quartet Making its debut performances in 2023, this piano quartet brings together Andrew Beer (Concertmaster for the Auckland Philharmonic Orchestra) and Sarah Watkins (piano) with colleagues from the APO, Robert Ashworth (viola) and Chen Cao (cello). They present exhilarating programmes, the experience being of vibrant story-telling that connects important composers of European music with Aotearoa New Zealand.

Calathea String Quartet is a quartet of young musicians from New Zealand, Australia, Ireland and England, all post-graduate students at the Royal Academy of Music in London. The concert opens with the clarity of Mozart's writing, leading into evocative music of Dame Gillian Whitehead and Imogen Holst's jazzy-flavoured Phantasy Quartet. It concludes with the rawness of Shostakovich's Fifth Quartet, which grows from the 5-note motif derived from the composer's name.
